RULES AND REGULATIONS

- Dogs entered at Kennel Club Licensed Field Trials must be registered at The Kennel Club in accordance with Kennel Club Regulations for Classification and Registration B.
- The ISAE/S&P reserve the right to refuse any entry.
- Substitutes can be accepted for bitches in season providing the substitute is eligible for the stake and no reserves are standing.
- All dogs resident outside the UK must be issued with a Kennel Club Authority to Compete number before entry to the show/event can be made. All overseas entries without an Authority to Compete number will be returned to the exhibitor/competitor.
- If entries or nominations exceed the number of permitted runners, the right to compete in a Trial shall be decided by ballot.
- Should circumstances so dictate the Society, in consultation with the judges, may alter arrangements as necessary. Such changes and the circumstances surrounding them will be reported to The Kennel Club.
- No modification may be made to the schedule after publication except by permission of The Kennel Club, followed by advertisement in appropriate journals if time permits before the closing of entries.
- Judges at a Trial are prohibited from entering a dog which is recorded in their ownership or part ownership.
- Videography and photography will only be permitted with the express permission of the Chief Steward and the host.
- WELFARE OF DOGS
An exhibitor (or competitor) whose dog is entered at a Kennel Club licensed event should take all reasonable steps to ensure the needs of their dog(s) are met, and should not knowingly put their dogs' health and welfare at risk by any action, default, omission or otherwise. A breach of this Regulation may be referred to the General Committee for disciplinary action under Kennel Club Rules and Regulations.
- DOGS IN CARS ON HOT DAYS
Your dog is vulnerable and AT RISK if left in a vehicle in high temperatures and even on days considered as slightly warm. Please take care of your dog. If your dog is found to be at risk forcible entry to your vehicle may be necessary without liability for any damage caused.
- In the event of the stake being cancelled £2.00 of the entry fees will be refunded
- Under no circumstances are dogs to be run on the ground before the field trials. The owner(s) of any dog(s) so found will be liable to have their entry or entries disqualified and their entry fees forfeited by the committee.
- All dogs must be on a lead except when being judged.
- Any bitch in season or dog suffering from hysteria must be removed immediately from the ground and from the trials.
- All persons attending the field trial must consider themselves under the control of the officials.
- The use of prong collars are not permitted as per Kennel Club guidance.
- All competitors and spectators should make their own arrangements for lunch, transport and feeding of their dogs
- The ISAE/ S&P cannot accept responsibility for injury, loss or damage to person or property however occasioned.

PLEASE NOTE: Out of respect for the generosity of our host the committees of the promoting clubs are concerned that competitors should try and ensure that their dogs have attained a suitable competence.
